

Kilkenny MABS

Kilkenny MABS is concerned with the difficulties being faced by many people with mortgage and debt issues. Anyone affected by debt should not ignore the matter but seek help as early as possible and this may alleviate the stress and social difficulties associated with debt. Kilkenny MABS is a Free, Confidential and Independent Service funded through CIB. Contact Kilkenny MABS, 8 William St, 0761072610 or Kilkenny@mabs.ie

Marriage Seminar

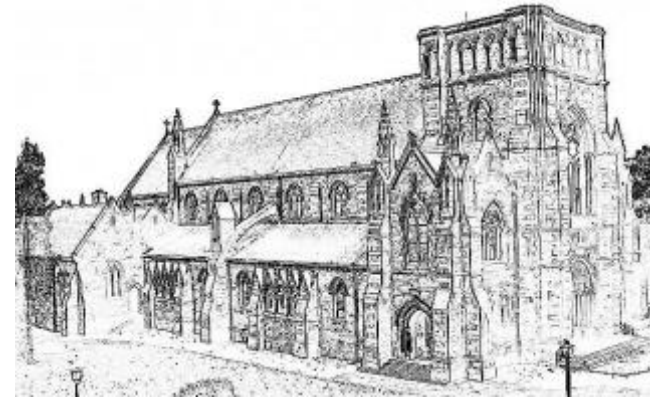

While attending a Marriage Seminar dealing with communication, Tom and his wife Grace listened intently to the instructor...

"It is essential that husbands and wives know each other's likes and dislikes," to which Tom and Grace nodded their heads in agreement. Then he addressed Tom, "Can you name your wife's favourite flower?" Tom was pleased he knew the answer instantly. He leaned over, touched his wife's arm gently and whispered, "It's Odium's, honey, isn't it?"

A Real Gut-Buster

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time 19th February 2017

'You have learnt how it was said:'

We all like our friends and we want to remember their birthdays and other special occasions. If they need our help, we are glad to be able to lend a hand, offer a listening ear, share our time or give some useful advice.

In contrast, we are not quite so kind to the people we dislike. If we really dislike them, to the point of hatred, then we may be tempted to treat them unjustly or, at least, damage their character by slandering them and gossiping about them. For Christians, this type of behaviour is unthinkable, precisely because Jesus explicitly forbade it.

During his Sermon on the Mount, Jesus reminded his audience about the Old Law before taking them forward to the perfection of the New Law: 'You have learnt how it was said: You must love your neighbour and hate your enemy. But I say this to you: love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you' (Mt 5:43-44). When we next receive a request for help, by a neighbour or work colleague to whom we are not naturally drawn, let us remember Jesus' exhortation and respond with kindness and generosity.
